MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 30th November 1967

G.S.R. 1847.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules for regulating the redeployment of surplus staff against vacancies in Central Civil Services and Posts, Class III, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(i) These rules may be called the Redeployment of Surplus Staff against vacancies in the Central Civil Services and Posts, Class III, Rules, 1967.

(ii) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 25th February, 1966.

2. Definitions.—In these rules unless the context otherwise requires.

- (a) "Cell" means the Central (Surplus Staff) Cell in the Ministry of Home Affairs;
- (b) "Surplus Staff" means persons who have been rendered surplus as a result of
  - (i) introduction of administrative reforms;
  - (ii) studies by the Staff Inspection Unit of the Ministry of Finance;
  - (iii) studies of work measurement or other administrative reforms undertaken by Government Departments/Offices; and
  - (iv) abolition or winding up of organisations.

3. Redeployment of Surplus Staff.—(i) All vacancies in the Central Civil Services and posts, Class III, which are required to be filled by direct recruitment otherwise than on the basis of competitive examinations held by the Union Public Service Commission shall be filled from amongst the Surplus Staff sponsored by the Cell.

(ii) The Government Departments or Offices may fill vacancies in accordance with the normal procedure only after ascertaining from the Cell that they have no suitable persons from amongst the Surplus Staff available with them for the particular post.

4. Age Limit.—The maximum age limit prescribed for direct recruitment to Central Civil Services and Posts Class III may be deemed to have been relaxed in the case of Surplus Staff redeployed through the Cell.

5. Educational Qualifications.—(i) The Surplus Staff sponsored by the Cell for redeployment against vacancies in Central Civil Services and Posts, Class III shall not be subject to any tests or interviews for the purpose of appointment, unless otherwise decided by or in consultation with the Cell.

(ii) The Surplus Staff shall not be ineligible for appointment in the recipient Organisation on the ground that they do not possess the minimum educational qualifications prescribed for the posts to which they are redeployed by the Cell except in cases where certain minimum technical qualifications are prescribed for a particular post.

6. Medical examination.—The surplus staff redeployed by the Cell shall not be required to undergo fresh medical examination unless different medical standards have been prescribed for the post in the recipient organisation or unless the person concerned had not been medically examined in respect of his previous post or if examined, had been declared medically unfit.

7. Powers of the Ministry of Home Affairs.—The Ministry of Home Affairs shall decide about the suitability or otherwise of surplus staff for redeployment against vacancies in the Central Civil Services and Posts, Class III and the recipient organisations shall comply with the decisions of the Ministry of Home Affairs in this regard

8. Amendment of Recruitment Rules.—All rules regulating the recruitment of persons to Central Civil Services and Posts shall be deemed to have been amended to the extent provided for in these rules.

(Transport Wing)

New Delhi, the 1st December 1967

G.S.R. 1850.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class III and Class IV posts in the Training Ship 'Dufferin', Bombay under the Directorate General of Shipping, Bombay:—

1. Short Title and Commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Trainning Ship 'Dufferin' (Class III and Class IV) Recruitment Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts in the establishment connected with the Training Ship 'Dufferin', Bombay, specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed to these rules.

3. Number Classification and scale of pay.—The number of posts, their classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other Qualifications.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications for recruitment and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid.

Provided that the maximum age limit specified in column 6 of the said Schedule for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, displaced persons and other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders of the Central Government issued from time to time.

5. Disqualification.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries, in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the lifetime of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of these posts;

(b) No woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of these posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Power to Relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

MINISTRY OF STEEL, MINES AND METALS

(Department of Mines and Metals)

New Delhi, the 28th November 1967

G.S.R. 1883.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class I and Class II posts in the Geological Survey of India including Exploration Wing, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Geological Survey of India including Exploration Wing (Class I and Class II posts) Recruitment Rules, 1967.

(ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the recruitment to Class I and Class II posts in the Geological Survey of India including Exploration Wing, specific in column 1 of the Schedule annexed to these rules.

3. Number of posts, classification and scales of pay.—The number of posts, their classification and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid:

Provided that the upper age limit specified in column 6 of the said Schedule may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes or other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Disqualification.—(1) No person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and

(2) No woman whose marriage is void by reason of her husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6 Reservation of permanent vacancies in engineering posts.—(1) Unless otherwise directed by the Central Government, fifty per cent of the permanent vacancies which are filled by direct recruitment shall be reserved for the Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers who are commissioned in the Armed Forces of the Union on a temporary basis, after the 1st November, 1962, and are later released.

(2) For the purposes of sub-rule (1)

(a) all permanent Class I Engineering posts in the scale of Rs. 400—950 shall be grouped together and all other permanent Class I Engineering posts carrying higher scales of pay shall form a separate group; and

(b) all permanent Class II Engineering posts shall be grouped together.

(3) Any Emergency Commissioned Officer or Short Service Commissioned Officer referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be entitled to be considered for the vacancies reserved under sub-rule (1) in the Engineering posts for which he would have been eligible had he not joined the Armed Forces of the Union:

Provided that he complies with the provisions of the rules in force regarding physical fitness for such posts.

(4) Until otherwise directed by the Central Government, the permanent vacancies in Engineering posts reserved under sub-rule (1), shall be filled only on a temporary basis and the remaining permanent vacancies shall continue to be filled permanently in accordance with these rules.

(5) The seniority and pay of the persons appointed to the reserved vacancies shall be determined in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

Explanation.—In this rule "Engineering posts" mean the posts referred to in Sl. Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the said Schedule.

7. Liability to serve in Defence Service or post connected with the Defence of India.—Any person possessing a degree in engineering or equivalent qualification appointed to a post specified in column 1 of the said Schedule on or after the commencement of these rules shall, if so required, be liable to serve in any Defence Service or post connected with the Defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any:

Provided that such a person—

(i) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of such appointment; and

(ii) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

8. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.
